Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/706,060	Applicant(s) NAKAMURA ET AL.
	Examiner Girumsew Wendmagegn	Art Unit 2621

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1,2,5,8,9 and 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hidehiko (JP 09-190671).

Regarding claim1, 8 Hidehiko anticipates a disk reproduction apparatus comprising: a shooting portion configured to shoot a surface of a disk and output video data(see page2 paragraph 0010 image reader 11); a storage portion configured to store the video data output from the shooting portion(see page2 paragraph 0010 data store circuit 13); a display portion configured to perform video display based on the video data stored in the storage portion; and an output portion configured to digitally output the video data stored in the storage portion to the (see page2 paragraph 0010-0012).

Regarding claim2, 9 Hidehiko anticipates a disk reproduction apparatus according to claim1, further comprising: a control portion configured to cause the shooting portion to perform a shooting operation until the disk is driven to rotate after being loaded (see page2 paragraph 0009).

Regarding claim5, 12 Hidehiko anticipates a disk reproduction apparatus according to claim1, further comprising: a disk loading portion configured to control a disk tray to be pulled/inserted with respect to an apparatus main body (see page3 paragraph 0010-0011); and a control portion configured to cause the shooting portion to perform a shooting operation when the disk tray is controlled to an inserted state from the pulled state by the disk loading portion (see page3 paragraph 0010-0011).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim3-4, 6-7,10-11 and 13-14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hidehiko (JP 09-190671).

Regarding claim3, 4,6,7,11,13,and 14, see the teaching of Hidehiko above. Hidehiko does not teach erasing the video data stored in the storage portion in a state that the disk is unloaded. How ever it is old and well known in the art to erase a data from storage device. Therefore official notice is taken.

Art Unit: 2621

One of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would have been motivated to erase the video data of Hidehiko because it would save storage space to process other video data.

Therefore, the invention as a whole would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, absent unexpected results to the contrary.
